

NEWS

DunnCox Ranked as Leader in Business Law

DunnCox was yet again ranked in Band 1 of Chambers and Partners Global 2009, A Guide to the World's Best Lawyer's.

The publication describes the firm as an 'inarguably top-tier firm' with an experienced team which offers the full range of services to its broad domestic and international clientele. Practice areas include banking and finance, corporate, shipping, real estate, IP, litigation, tax and telecoms.

Attorneys Christopher Bovell, Jerome Lee and W. John Vassell, Q.C. received high rankings. Below is the report from Chambers & Partners Global on their individual rankings and descriptions from industry players and clients.

CHRISTOPHER D.R. BOVELL
CONSULTANT

"Highly respected and prominent" consultant Christopher Bovell is one of the most knowledgeable figures in the Jamaican legal community. His presence and influence at the firm draws in top-class clients such as hotel chains, manufacturing companies and major property developers, says the publication. Mr. Bovell received a 'Senior Statesman' ranking, a category which only includes exceptional individuals.

JEROME I. LEE
MANAGING PARTNER

Managing partner Jerome Lee is "highly esteemed in commercial circles," report sources. He has been involved of late in major restructurings out of New York, and in significant foreign investment transactions and M&A work.

W. John Vassell, QC who spearheads the firm's litigation team is a widely experienced litigator with specialist expertise in shipping, insurance, defamation and insolvency work.

W. JOHN VASSELL, Q.C.
HEAD OF LITIGATION

Click here to see all the rankings for Jamaica in Chambers and Partners Global, an independent publication.