

Donovan Walker Attends Posidonia Shipping Conference in Athens, Greece

Partner in our firm, Donovan Walker at the invitation of the Maritime Authority of Jamaica, attended the Posidonia Shipping Conference (“Posidonia”) in Athens, Greece from June 7 - 11, 2010. Posidonia is the largest maritime event in the world and attracts all the leading members of the international shipping community including ship owners, bankers, insurers, brokers and Maritime Law Attorneys as well and ship suppliers for 5 days of intensive business and networking opportunities.

Mr. Walker notes that, ‘Jamaica offers a quality registry and a full service Maritime Authority which is poised to be one of the leading maritime authorities in the coming years. The new relationships forged at Posidonia coupled with the hard work of the Maritime Authority, the team of deputy registrars around the world together with the legal services offered by maritime attorneys in Jamaica will serve to develop this area.’

Donovan Walker (R) with guests at the Jamaica Ship Registry booth.

Presentation of the DunnCox brochure

Visitors to the Jamaica Ship Registry booth